Adams County Names New Finance Director

Ben Dahlman, 16-year veteran of Adams County, takes over leadership role

County Manager Todd Leopold announced today that Ben Dahlman has been selected as the new director of the Adams County Finance Department.

Dahlman has worked for the county for 16 years. He has served in numerous roles, including senior budget analyst, budget manager, assistant finance director, and now finance director.

“Dahlman was part of the team that has consistently received the Distinguished Budget Award and the Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting,” said Leopold. “The county has received this recognition for more than 20 years. We are confident Dahlman is capable of continuing that strong tradition and providing dynamic leadership in his new role.”

Dahlman holds a Bachelor’s degree from the University of Colorado at Denver and a Master’s degree in Business Administration from Regis University with an emphasis in Accounting and Finance. He is also a Certified Public Finance Officer.
